Financial Responsibility & Participation Agreement

Your trip for the December 2026 trip with Pastor to Congo/Uganda is approx. $1700

With Gianna while team is in Congo at Nyumbani ya Abba, in Jinja, Uganda and then meeting Pastor is $1500.

With Gianna to children's home $1500 (not including airfare).

By signing below, the participant acknowledges and agrees that any funds submitted to their mission trip fundraising account that are obtained or represented as "fundraised" (including but not limited to church fundraisers, events, online fundraising, or soliciting donations from friends, family, or supporters) are non-refundable under all circumstances. The organization reserves the sole and absolute right to approve or deny participation in the mission trip at any time and for any reason it deems appropriate. Failure to meet required financial deadlines will result in removal from the trip with no exceptions.

A minimum of THE FULL COST OF AIRFARE must be submitted and credited to the participant's fundraising account by the specified deadline in order for airfare to be purchased; if this amount is not received by the deadline, airfare will not be purchased. If airfare has already been purchased and the participant fails to meet a subsequent required payment deadline, the participant will be removed from the trip, no funds will be refunded, and an airfare voucher (if applicable) may be issued in lieu of cash, at the discretion of the organization. Under no circumstances will cash refunds be issued for airfare or fundraising contributions. All deadlines are final and strictly enforced.

I understand that it is my responsibility to raise all funds on my own. The cost of the total trip must be paid for before I leave for my trip.
